

Partners buy back Leimdörfer

Partners have acquired 100% of Leimdörfer from Glitnir Property Holding.

STOCKHOLM and HELSINKI —March 18th, 2009

Leimdörfer is the leading financial adviser on the Nordic property market. With more than 30 employees in Stockholm and Helsinki, Leimdörfer offers advisory services across the following four business areas: property transactions; property-related corporate finance; property financing and strategic advisory.

"Leimdörfer was founded in the midst of the property crisis in 1992 and has since then continuously and with great commitment advised our clients in exciting and value-creating transactions. As a fully independent adviser, wholly-owned by partners, we now look forward to continue to further enhance our service offering. In addition, we will have the opportunity to offer additional key employees ownership in the company", says Sven Dahlin, partner and CEO.

Leimdörfer offers advisory services to all categories of property owners and property investors, Nordic as well as international; institutional investors; funds; property- and construction companies; industrials and private equity-firms as well as public sector property owners.

In November 2008, Leimdörfer was named 'Best Real Estate Investment Bank', 'Best Real Estate Adviser Overall' and 'Best Transaction Execution Adviser' in the Nordics as well as in Sweden in Euromoney's annual real estate awards for excellence.
